

welcome

REV. TRACEY W. DANIEL

Tracey Daniel joined the staff at First (Scots) Presbyterian Church in Charleston, SC in 2020 where she serves as the Associate Pastor for Christian Education and Congregational Life. Tracey received her Master of Divinity degree from San Francisco Theological Seminary and she received a Master in Theological Studies at Duke University. Tracey loves to teach and she enjoys working with lay leaders to design and implement ministry events for all ages. Tracey is married to Dan Daniel. They have five adult children, a son-in-law and a daughter-in-law and two granddaughters. Tracey's hobbies include crafting, baking, reading and walking on the beach.

Growing in Faith and Love