

Women on Wednesdays

WOW is a Bible study group that provides an opportunity for women of our church to study the Bible, grow in faith, and connect with one another. Through books and study guides, we share in expanding our faith formation, enjoying lively discussions and fellowship in a supportive environment.

We look forward to having you join us this year!

Men of the Church

This is a small group for men who want to grow in friendship and faith. The group will meet each Thursday morning from 7:45am to 8:45am at the Cape Fear Club, located at 206 Chestnut Street in downtown Wilmington.

Gentlemen will gather for breakfast and some fellowship time. The scripture for the week is read aloud and group leaders take turns leading the discussion.

Journey Class

The Journey class meets at 9am each Sunday in Room 303, the Fireplace Room.

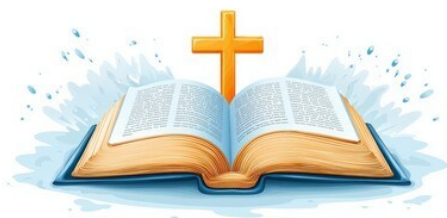

This fall we will explore “From Jesus to Christ” and “God and the History of Art” using DVDs.

The class is full of great discussions with friendly, faithful people. Please join us and bring your ideas to the table!

The Village

You are invited to join The Village Sunday School class which meets each Sunday at 9am in the Session Room. This class is designed for parents and grandparents who long to help their children or grandchildren grow in faith while deepening their own.

We explore families in faith through Bible study and contemporary Christian resources.

Come grow your Christian faith through connection, conversation, and community.
